LEON HARRIS

Anchor, ABC7/WJLA-TV

Award-winning journalist Leon Harris anchors the 5 p.m. and 11 p.m. newscasts for ABC7/WJLA-TV. He came to Washington after 20 years at CNN's Atlanta Headquarters, where he co-anchored CNN Live Today and Prime News, and hosted CNN Presents and American Stories.

Harris has covered a wide variety of stories including the September 11th terror strikes, the Oklahoma City bombing, the Asian Tsunami of 2004, the explosion and crash of TWA Flight 800 and the Los Angeles riots. He has interviewed presidential candidates, and reported live from both the Republican and Democratic National Conventions.

Harris' work has earned him a number of honors, among them multiple CableAce awards for Best Newscaster, and National Emmy Awards for coverage of the September 11th terror strikes, the Oklahoma City bombing and the 2000 presidential election. He was honored, too, with a National Headliner Award and more recently with a National Capital Area Emmy Award for Best Anchor.

A Cum Laude and honorary doctorate recipient from Ohio University, Leon Harris is passionate about improving the lives of children and serves on numerous charitable boards including those of For the Love of Children, Junior Achievement of the National Capital Area, and MenzFit.

DANIEL K. INOUE

United States Senator

Daniel K. Inouye, the most senior member of the U.S. Senate and the President Pro-Tempore, is known for his distinguished record as a legislative leader, and as a World War II combat veteran with the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, who earned the nation's highest award for military valor, the Medal of Honor.

He was first elected to the U.S. Senate in 1962 and is now serving his ninth consecutive term.

As Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee and of the Senate Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, Senator Inouye has been able to focus on defense matters that strengthen national security, and enhance the quality of life for military personnel and their families.

This reflects his hope for a more secure world, and his desire to provide the best possible assistance to the men and women who put their lives at risk to protect the United States.

He is the Ranking Democrat on the Commerce, Science & Transportation Committee and the Indian Affairs Committee and sits on the Rules Committee. In addition, he helped establish the Inter-parliamentary Exchange Program between the U.S. Senate and Japan's legislature. The Government of Japan presented him with the Grand Cordon of the Order of the Rising Sun in 2000 and in 2011, they made Senator Inouye the seventh American and the first of Japanese descent to receive the Grand Cordon of the Order of the Paulownia Flowers, the highest award in the order of the Rising Sun.

He became the first Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence in 1976, served as the third-ranking leader among Senate Democrats as Secretary of the Democratic Conference from January 1979 through 1988.

He chaired the Senate Democratic Central America Study Group to assess U.S. policy and served as Senior Counselor to the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America (also known as the Kissinger Commission).

In addition, Senator Inouye has championed the interest of Hawaii's people throughout his career.

On May 24, 2008, Senator Inouye married Irene Hirano, who is President of the U.S.-Japan Council. He was married for nearly 57 years to Margaret Awamura Inouye, a former instructor at the University of Hawaii, who passed away on March 13, 2006.

He has a son, Ken, who is married to Jessica Carroll from Rochester, New York, and a granddaughter, Mary Margaret "Maggie" Inouye.

MAJOR GENERAL (RET) DEE ANN MCWILLIAMS President, U.S. Army Women's Foundation

General McWilliams retired in 2011 as Acting Director of the Institute for National Intelligence for the Director of National Intelligence. In twenty-nine years with the United States Army, she held a variety of Human Relations positions, commanding four companies, a training battalion, and a personnel brigade. She also taught national strategic studies and leadership, and served as an Equal Opportunity Officer.

General McWilliams holds degrees from Lon Morris College and Stephen F. Austin University, and has been named a distinguished alumnus of both. Additionally, she graduated from Texas Woman's University and the National War College. She serves on the board of directors for Lon Morris College, US Army Women's Foundation, Women in Military Service Association/Women's Memorial at Arlington Cemetery and the Army Historical Foundation.

U.S. ARMY WOMEN WHO SERVED IN VIETNAM

To the Army women who served in Vietnam – when they were needed, they were there: from the Hospitals to the Field Units to the Headquarters to the War Rooms, from Saigon to Long Binh to Da Nang.

It is our pleasure to honor you today as we congratulate you on your distinguished careers, paving the way for today's generation of Army women.
