ABOUT THE U.S. ARMY WOMEN'S FOUNDATION

The U.S. Army Women's Foundation (AWF) is a premier center for educational excellence, the national network for today's Army women, and a dynamic advocate for preserving and sharing the history of Army women. The mission of the U.S. Army Women's Foundation is to honor and preserve the service of women in the Army. As our nation participates in Women's History Month in March 2016, the U.S. Army Women's Foundation commemorates and celebrates the service, accomplishments, and sacrifices of Army women by hosting an annual Hall of Fame Reception and Summit. These events place the AWF at the forefront of the issues and opportunities impacting U.S. Army women in advancing stability, peace, and prosperity around the world. Event participants interact and partner with an elite cadre of senior military leaders, corporate leaders, opinion leaders, and policy makers.
